16th WEEK IN ORDINARY TIME

Reflect on this week's Gospel (Matthew 13:24-30), the parable of the weeds among the wheat. "Let them both grow together until the harvest; and at harvest time I will tell the reapers, "Gather the weeds first and bind them in bundles to be burned, burned, but gather the wheat into my barn.""

OCIA: JOURNEY OF FAITH

(Order of Christian Initiation of Adults)

Our parish will begin the OCIA (Order of Christian Initiation of Adults) program this September. If you feel inspired by the Holy Spirit to become part of the Catholic Church, this is a wonderful opportunity to be baptized or received into full communion. We also ask all parishioners to encourage anyone they know who has shown an interest in the Catholic faith, to attend.

ALL ARE WELCOME. All text and images (c) Our Lady of Victory Parish, Limon.

SIXTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME (YEAR A)

THE WHEAT AND THE WEEDS

Our world is a strange mixture of goodness and evil.
God sows wheat in the field, but the Devil sows weeds.
Even so, God can pull good from this situation ...
Jesus, on the other hand, says, "wait and see."

1. Two Different Approaches: The Patient Master and Impatient Servants

This parable shows us two different approaches, and the two orms removal and urge servants...
The field is both the world and our own heart...
"Vince in bono malum" - "Conquer evil with Good"

2. Modern Impatience

Modern man seeks immediate results...
We rush into things and rashly judge others...
It is so easy to fall into a state of pessimism and despair!

3. Remaking our Image of God's Face

With gospel in hand let us remake our image of the merciful face of God...

"Lord, you are good and forgiving!"

Together with this parable Jesus presents two others and it imnatlnr, and living faithfully...
It is better to be a Christian without saying it...
